Wild Horses Safari

A Desert Paradise

This adventurous ride includes some of the most breath-taking desertscapes on the planet. From the great dune sea of the central Namib to the very edge of the Sperrgebiet (German for restricted area) this ride covers diverse desert terrain: immense grassy plains, signature inselbergs (island mountains) and the rugged Tiras Mountain Reserve. This exclusive ride ends at Klein Aus Vista near the home of the Wild Horses of the Namib

Being on Safari

- Camp life has a leisurely pace - days begin at sunrise with the aroma of freshly brewed 100% Arabica coffee wafting through camp. After a hearty breakfast we start riding around 8am for 4 - 5 hours. Lunch breaks are 1 - 2 hours, followed by another 2 - 3 hours riding in the afternoon.
- We ride 20 - 45 km per day at all places and over rough terrain
- Our GALLERY page gives good insight into what it's like to be on safari Consult our Riding Policy before booking - by signing the required Indemnity it is assumed you have understood the terms and conditions contained therein.
- Because of the remoteness of our riding safaris, all guests require comprehensive medical insurance including repatriation.

Summary of Itinerary

Days 1 + 2 Arrival and Transfer

Welcome to Namibia! Windhoek Airport Shuttle service will collect you from Windhoek International (Hosea Kutako) Airport to your first overnight in Windhoek. Meet fellow riders and your host and guide Andrew Gillies for pre-ride briefing and dinner. After breakfast a 4-hour commute to our lunch spot in the quaint town of Maltahöhe, followed by a decent down the Zaris Pass to the Wolwedans Private Reserve. Settle in and explore your surroundings, meet your crew and horses before enjoying sundowners in the soft evening light with the spectacular Milky Way arching overhead.

Days 3 - 8 Desert Wonderland

We set off into the wide expanse of one of the largest Nature Reserves in Southern Africa. Riding across vast plains of truly unspoiled countryside with exceptional panoramic views where sentinel inselbergs (island mountains) dot the desert-scape. Desert adapted game are encountered during the day where open country with good going allows for some fast-paced riding. Lunch is enjoyed under a convenient tree or interesting spot with a good view. Overnight camps are chosen for their spectacular views and we arrive in time to enjoy sundowners in the soft pastel light the Namib is known for. Sleeping under the magnificent starry sky has its own kind of magic - few places on earth afford so little light pollution and an incomparable view of the southern constellation.

Our route may vary depending on weather conditions or other circumstances but be assured, every day will be memorable.

Days 9/10 Luderitz and Departure

From our last night camp at Geisterschlucht (Ghost valley) we visit the waterhole of the Namib's – the wild horses of the Namib. On our last day we visit the coastal town of Luderitz, visiting the extraordinary 'ghost town' of Kolmanskop – the town the desert is 'reclaiming'. Our departure from Klein Aus Vista gets us to Windhoek International Airport by 17:00
